REPORT ON VISIT TO SOLIGA TRIBE COMMUNITY. B R HILLS.

CHAMARAJA NAGARA (DIST).

B R Hills is a hill range situated in South Western Karnataka of Yalander Taluk, Chamrajnagar district. Here dwell a community called as Soligas. There are 750 families with 2850 population living in this Hill. There are different Kulas who worship different deities. They are Halas, Silakas, Bellas, Gollas, Balegaras.

Agriculture is their main Occupation. They celebrate two main festivals namely Konda and Rotti festival. Their main deity is Lord Shiva. They mainly grow millets and they have the special intelligence in cutting of honey from the forest. The practice of marriage of Soliga tribe is very different from normal Hindu traditions.

When the Konda festival is going on throw out the night with full of dance and songs. The boy throw a stone on a girl, who he likes and then they both will escape from the community and leave nearly for one week in faraway forest and later they join the community as a married couple by giving 12 $\frac{1}{4}$ rupees to the community head as compensation.

The government has provided various facilities through Gram Panchayath like nutrition food, digital library, transportation etc.

The one good thing about Soliga tribe is they don't do any kind of animal sacrifice for their Gods and in their any festivals. They also worship many other Sub deities along with Lord Shiva. During the rotti festival the grains grown by the whole community make rottis in mass. In middle of the forest they dig hole and cook them in clay oven and then distribute them among themselves.

B R Hills is their native place. They are living there since from their ancestors they are not immigrants.
